Thro' the crowd-ed street Ring the cheers that greet, A
For the moth-er's heart Plays the her-o's part, When

Gen-eral loved by all One who fought and won, 'Neath a for-ign brave men dare and die Heed-ing du-ty's call, Still she gives her sun, Where mil-lions still fight and fall. There's a brav-er name all, And whis-pers the last Good-bye. You'll not find her name

Still un-known to fame, And you will find an-oth-er, Wher-ev-er there's a moth-er.
In the Hall of fame, But when the can-non's rat-tle, It's she who wins the bat-tle.

Chorus.

In let - ters of gold on his - try's pag - es — You will find the names of he - roes true; —

p-f

— Still we sing of their prais - es thro' the a - ges, — But there's one whom we give no cred - it to. — When dan - ger threat - ens we're a mil - lion he - roes, — Who are read - y all to heed our coun - try's call — But still there is an - oth - er, our brav - est he - ro, moth - er, That's the great - est lit - tle Gen - eral of them all. — In all. —

When The Robin Calls Its Mate

Words by
Chas. E. Casey.

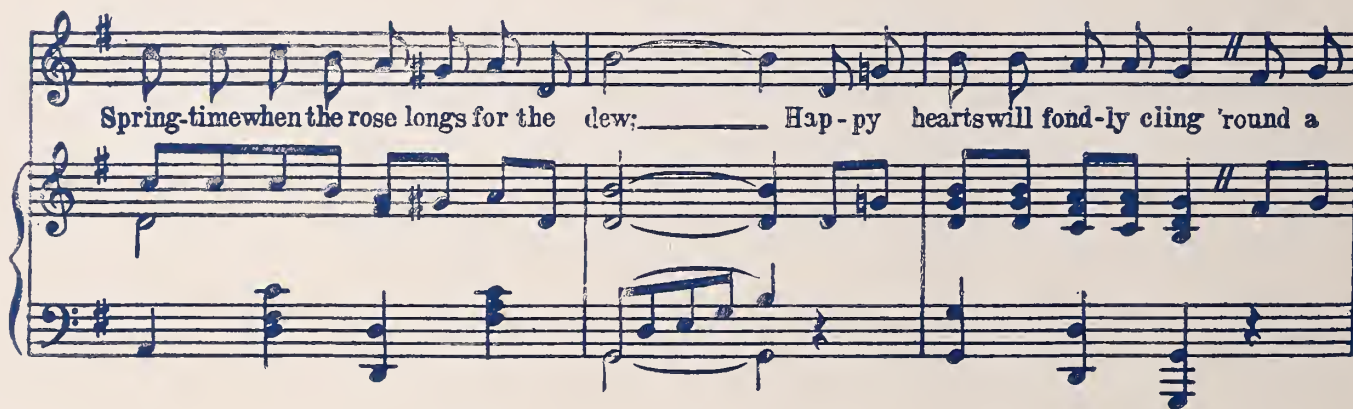

(Then I'll Call You.)

Music by Jacob Henry Ellis
and Benjamin Richmond

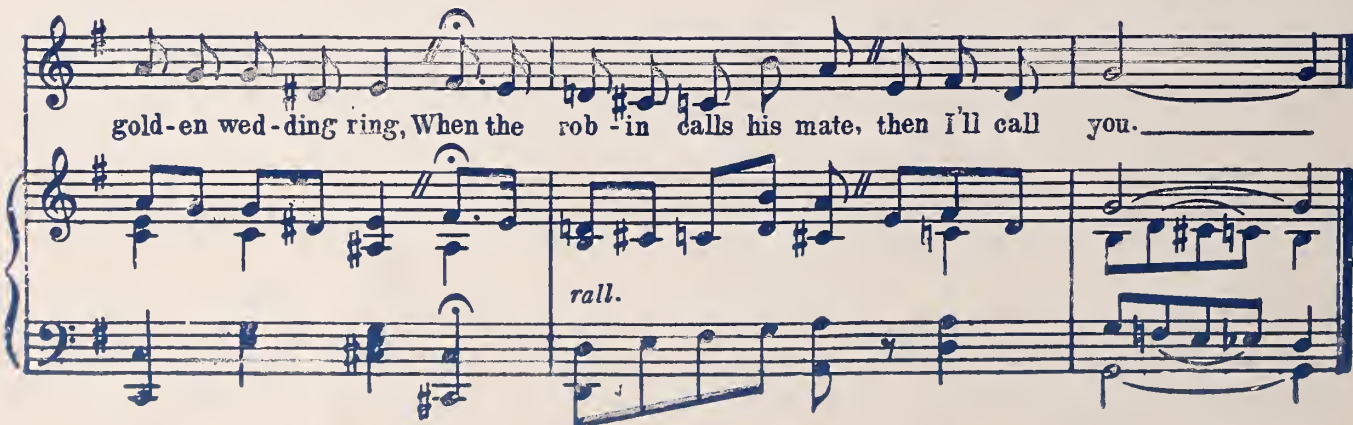

Chorus.

When the rob - in calls his mate, then I'll call you, ——— In the Spring-time when the rose longs for the dew; ——— Hap - py hearts will fond - ly cling 'round a gold - en wed - ding ring, When the rob - in calls his mate, then I'll call you. ———
